NATIONAL VOLUNTEERING WEEK
January 18-24, 2017

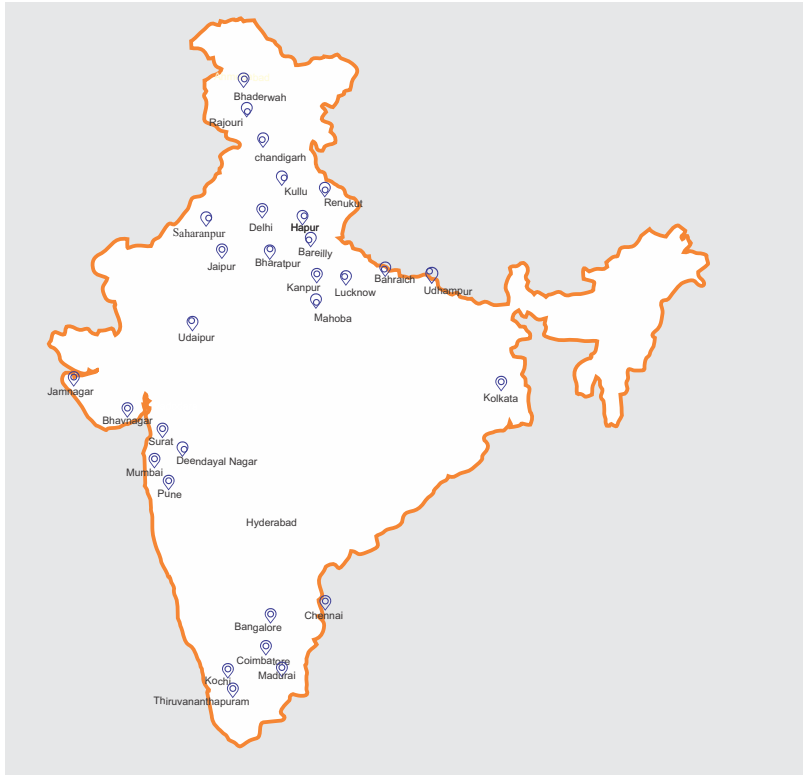

Mr Adi Godrej

Chairman
India@75 Foundation
& Chairman
Godrej Group

“Volunteerism in today’s context could be the most potent force to bind the country together by giving an opportunity to people to participate, contribute and be a part of India’s growth journey. India@75 has been arduously working towards creating synergy amongst the various stakeholders with common objective. I see a perceptible change in the mind set of corporates towards volunteerism. We need to encourage and harness the volunteer energy in India.”
